Mayor's Letter

Thank you to everyone who was able to participate in some way, shape, or form in our Riverfest and Craft Show on June 4-5. As you know, this is a very important event that helps fund town capital projects. A special thanks, of course, to our Events Director, Julie Little, and all the staff and volunteers who made it possible. June also, of course, included dedications, a concert, trivia night, and other enjoyable activities, and those continue this month with our Music on Mill free concert on July 16, featuring the band "Up All Night." We look forward as well to another popular Trivia Night on July 22—this one with the theme "Beach Party." As usual, both events will be held in River Mill Park. Over the July 4th holiday, while Occoquan does not host its own fireworks display or parade, there are a host of such activities in the area. We have listed some in this newsletter and encourage you to take a moment to check them out (as well as review the rules for private fireworks). More information on town events may be found elsewhere in this newsletter and on the town website.

Last month the Town Council adopted the tax rates and budget for FY 2023, which begins on July 1. There were no rate increases. We are also continuing to evaluate potential uses for the Coronavirus State and Local Fiscal Recovery Funds (SLFRF) allotted to us and plan another public meeting for feedback in July. The projects under consideration have changed based on feedback at early public sessions, so I encourage those who are interested to stay alert for future announcements on the subject. Also, please note that in this edition of the newsletter we are including a survey related to postal delivery. The impetus for this is explained in the survey itself and we ask you to carefully consider the issues involved and provide us with your opinion.

As we start a new fiscal year, I would once more like to thank all of you for your encouragement and support. Please do not hesitate to contact me at eporta@occoquanva.gov with any questions, comments, or concerns.

Safety First for Independence Day!

Not all fireworks are allowed in Virginia. Only fireworks which have been approved by Prince William County may be possessed or discharged within the county. Fireworks that explode, emits flames or travels into the air greater than twelve (12) feet are prohibited. Children should always be supervised around fireworks and fireworks should only be used on a driveway or sidewalk in order to prevent fires. Reminder that fireworks can only be used on private property with the approval of the property owner.

To find safety tips when using fireworks, please visit the Fire Marshal's Office website at pwcva.gov/department/fire-marshals-office/fireworks-safety-tips.
